

2011 Season Entertainers

AON: A Celtic Celebration of Irish and Scottish culture through song and dance. www.AONBAND.com
(May 28-29, June 4-5)

Bard Chris, Piper: Playing traditional Scottish, Irish and Welsh tunes on the Scottish Smallpipes. (All weekends)

Blue Run Jousting Troupe: Fine knights and noble steeds demonstrating knightly skills.
www.bluerunjousting.com (All weekends)

Calico Jenny: A lively presentation of mostly original sea songs, mostly from the ladies' perspective. (May 28-29)

Dinty, The Moor: Amazing Trickery and Honest Deceit. www.LiesOfBrian.com (June 4-5)

Fata Morgana Bellydance Troupe: Eccentrically exotic. Sinuously slinky yet spectacularly sharp dancing, driven by dynamic drumming. www.FataMorganaBellydance.com (May 14-15, 21-22, 28-29)

Fletcher Moone, the Culture of Beer: Fletcher Moone knows a lot about beer. And he's going to tell you all about it. In song. (All weekends)

HMHounds: Demonstrate the Sport of Queens, Greyhound Coursing, while promoting retired racing greyhound adoption. www.hmhounds.com (All weekends)

Jack Munda: Singer of Songs, Teller of Tales, and Freelance Bard to the Wealthy Patron. (May 7-8, 14-15 & June 4-5)

Johnny Doggerel: Two shows, Shakespeare Dr. Dogg Style, a comedic interpretation of one of Shakespeare's famous plays, and Shakespeare Made Plain, educational discussion of the works of William Shakespeare, providing context and a little bit of actual acting (gasp!). (All weekends)

Kathy Hutchins, Celtic Harpyr: Folk harp tunes and songs of Celtic lands. www.harpyr.com
(May 7-8, 21-22, 28-29, June 4-5)

Keltish: Whether the music be humorous or deep, modern or traditional, it's always fresh, always fun!
www.keltish.com (June 4-5)

Larksong: Six harmonious voices who love the sound and performance of beautiful a cappella music.
www.larksongsings.com (May 7 & 21)

Letter of Marque: Maritime Music, Mirth & Merriment. www.LetterOfMarque.org (May 21-22)

Mandrake's Magic: A magical mastermind manifesting mysteries, mirth, and mayhem! Facebook-"Mandrake's Magic" (All weekends, except May 14-15)

Mark Ross: Black Power demonstration. (May 7-8, May 28-29, June 4-5)

Maugorn The Stray: Wandering Minstrel, Pub singer, One-man medieval band, and bootless gangrel. www.stevehaug.com (May 7-8, 21-22, June 4-5)

Neidfyre: A solo artist with international flair, NeidFyre serenades with Scottish, Irish, English and Russian folk songs. www.neidfyre.com (May 28-29, June 4-5)

Overland Crew: Living history entertainers, the Overland Crew presents traditional and comedic music and sketches with a touch of madness and mayhem. (All weekends)

Pirates Royale: The original singing pirate band, creating music and mayhem since 1986. www.pirates.com (May 21-22)

Ship's Company Chanteymen: This jolly band of merrymakers will entertain you with the hearty worksongs and soulful ballads of sailors at sea. <http://www.shipscompany.org> (May 21-22)

Son of Strum: Old World Troubadour with songs of wit, romance, and heroism. (May 8, 14-15, 28-29)

The Commonwealth's Fighting Vpstarts: Stage Combat Teens perform a comical "Fusion" of Shakespeare's works. (May 14-15)

The Great Sashenka: Amazing feats of balance and contortion upon the slackrope. www.thegreatsashenka.com (May 15, 21-22, 28-29, June 4-5)

The Mad Mechanicals: This zany acting troupe takes the works of Shakespeare and...tweaks them. www.themadmechanicals.com (May 7-8, 14-15, 21-22, 28-29)

The Renaissance Man: Interactive Historical Comedy...oh, and Juggling! Different Material at Every Show! www.renaissance-man.com (May 7-8, 21-22, 28-29, June 4-5)

The Scales and Crosstones: Singing Pirate Band performing Celtic Tunes, Sea Shanties, and songs of Piratical Nature. Look us up on Facebook! (May 14-15, May 28)

Three Penny Bit: A duo with guitar and fiddle, singing traditional and not so traditional songs. (May 7-8, May 21-22)

Thunder & Spice: Whether singing bawdy songs at the pub, leading folk sing-alongs, or trading sea shanties with pirate crews, these energetic lads and ladies entertain with a contagious sense of fun! www.thunderandspice.com (May 28-29)

Tom Troubadude: Tom is a performer and interpreter of folk music from the Renaissance and Colonial American times with a love for the Irish/Celtic music of his heritage using a combination of folk and period musical replicas. <http://www.troubadude.com/> (May 14 & 29)

"Waiting For Summer": Wondering Minstrel of dubious Gaelic extract. tommyoops@hotmail.com (May 7-8, 14-15)

Will Paisley, Minstrel, Interrupted: Bawdy songs about Irish power drinking, leper family values and accidental transvestites. (All weekends)

Ye Olde Klass Klowne: A spectacular stupefying show of juggling, acrobatics and fire. (All weekends)